

TOEFL iBT® Test or IELTS Score Submission Exemption Application Form

Applicants who are either first language users of English or have earned an undergraduate and/or graduate degree(s) taught entirely in English and who wish to request an exemption from submitting TOEFL iBT® or IELTS scores, must submit this application form.

Depending on the content of your application, you may still be required to submit an official score or other documentation.

Applicant's Name	Given name(s)	Family/Surname

Reason for requesting an exemption

Please mark the reason for your exemption request and fill in the required information.

<input type="checkbox"/>	English is my first language.
	Nationality or country of origin
<input type="checkbox"/>	My undergraduate and/or graduate degree(s) were earned from a program that was taught entirely in English.
	*Please submit documentation verifying that English was the language of instruction or provide the URL of a website indicating that English was the language of instruction.
	University
	Undergraduate / graduate program
	Country
URL of the relevant website :		